HOLDING OUT FOR A HERO

The rancher and the runaway...

Who'd ever have guessed Kit had her very own guardian angel—and that he'd be wearing spurs?

But rancher Jarod Banning had saved Kit's life, offering her what she needed most: a place to hide!

For weeks someone had been sending her threatening letters—the police were clueless, and so Kit decided to disappear! And that was how she met Jarod Banning. Jarod Banning might be a full-time doctor and part-time rancher but he was certainly all man! Kit had known him less than twenty-four hours, but right now he was the only person she trusted. In Jarod's arms Kit felt safe, but was she now in a different kind of danger: falling in love with a hero who wasn't hers to hold?

"Winters weaves a magical spell that is unforgettable..."—Affaire de Coeur

Rebecca Winters is the Utah Writer of the Year 1995, winning the Isolde Carlsen Award for Excellence.
