Lord Bel, the evil genius of the kingdom of Vanidoom envenomed by bitterness leaves no stone unturned to fight and defeat his erstwhile master. King Salem and his followers have also vowed to bring the reign of the wicked outcast to an end. The king sent one of his general, Cherry, to invade the territory of Lord Bel but he was defeated by three powerful lethal weapons, released against him by Lord Bel. All hell was let loose when Cherry's wife was commissioned by King Salem to take over the command of her late husband. While Lord Bel had his hands full of her, the King of Salem sent to capture one of Lord Bel's sons, Sinamon; a most ruthless gang leader, who had ordered the massacre of the Vipers Cult Movement because he accuses them of killing his best buddy. The task of capturing Sinamon was herculean, but Witny and Shielda were well vested in their field. Sinamon was later sent back to Vanidoom after he completed his training under the King of Salemgape. Now he was commissioned to go and rout his father and his entire domain. That was when he remembers he had fought with a dragon during his spiritual initiation by the King of Salemgape. When he gets to Vanidoom, the battle between him and his father was fierce and scary... Will Sinamon accomplish his mission by routing his father who is more experience in war strategy? The formidable Lord Bel never say die. Let the intrigue begin.
