Breastworks K. P. Hayden

Alexis Willow had her fill of living in the crowded city. So she and her husband Chet bought the estate of turn of the century industrialist Titus Blaylock—a mansion of stone built atop a terrace carved from the shoulders of Cheat Mountain overlooking the village of Monterey, Virginia and the lush Shenandoah Valley. It was Lexi's dream come true: a fresh start in life, a home where she could raise champion Thoroughbreds and start a family. But from the moment she and Chet arrived the remains of the Blaylock past began to envelop their lives—greed, infidelity, jealousy and murder. At the heart of it was Titus Blaylock's lost fortune in gold and silver, believed by many to still be buried somewhere upon that mountain, a fortune many had spent their lives trying to find. Set against a backdrop of the historic Civil War Battle of McDowell, the Confederate Breastworks and the rich mountain empire culture, Lexi has to wrestle demons from her past and choose whether to fight for the life she has always imagined or surrender to the relentless outside influences once again. BREASTWORKS by K.P. Hayden, author of the supernatural nautical adventure DARKSAIL.
