Wish You Were Mine: Erotica Romance Short Story Greg P. Davies

This is a Romance erotic short story.

Shawn meets sultry Rachel at a nightclub and can't stop thinking about her until a chance meeting throws them together and he takes full advantage of the situation. But what happens when he learns that he isn't the only that experiences her charms?

Excerpt: She looked so good leaning against the back of the couch and my thoughts were so firmly attached to what might happen that it came as no surprise when she leaned forward and kissed me.

My body ignited with hot desire as her tongue danced over mine. I put my hands on her bare waist, caressing her with my fingertips. She sighed into my mouth, placed her hands over mine, and pushed them up her torso. I didn't need any further encouragement to ply her soft body with my hands.

It wasn't long before she groaned and stripped her shirt off. From there, we lost the rest of our clothes in a matter of seconds. I sat back on the couch and she came to me, her beautiful body swaying.
