Faith is a woman in a position to have it all. She is more valuable than her man Devon knows, but has to keep it from him until she figures out if he is worthy to be her king. After finding him in the most compromising position with Regina, her heart is torn. She must figure out if she can settle for the business man she has groomed to stand at her side without ever having the true love she longs for, or if she has finally gotten fed up with his selfish ways and needs to seek out a real king.

Can she get past busting Devon?

Can she truly trust a man with her business that she can't trust with her heart?

Is Devon meant to stand at her side?

Or will she meet her true king?

Find out all of this and more in Fit For A King!!!
