Great Marriage Expectations: Bridging the Gap Dr Glenice D. Glover

Our expectation is our faith. It is our vision for our marriage...it is not yet our reality. It is great to EXPECT the best for your marriage. It is an exercise of your faith; however, it is wise to recognize that there is a process involved before our expectations become our manifested reality. Scripture is replete with persons who were given a promise from God requiring years of faith/expectation/waiting, before the promise was actually realized. (Hebrews 11) Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Joshua, Rahab, Gideon, David and Samuel, all Received a promise from God, believed God, expected the promise to be realized, successfully endured the faith process, and in the process of time, they all realized their promised expectations. FACT: Our faith/expectation is always different from our natural reality. If not, then our expectations would not be called faith. It is only after our faith is realized, (through the process of time), that our faith becomes our natural reality. So, don't lose hope! Expect the great! It is just a matter of time before you are sure to receive the manifestation of what you expect for your marriage. However, there is a process that is necessary to bring our expectations to reality and the process takes work.
