We are born with a lifelong thirst for love. It changes our motivation for living and relationships become meaningful with it. However, it sometimes seems impossible to find someone who's right for you — and who thinks you're right for him or her!

This book is about a 6 simple step process that will help single people who desire to find their true love and soul mate. The steps were derived from what I learnt about of law of attraction and self-love. Just like many people, I used to ride the merry-go-round of heartbreak and disenchantment with my love life. I was tired of going around in circles with my love life and wondering why I kept attracting what I didn't want. The steps in this book are what I used to attract my ideal partner. And my wish for true love fulfilled.

Nothing can stop you from finding your soulmate, not your past, not your age. True love is yours and it all starts from deciding what you want. We often overlook what is simple in life and try to complicate things. So try this simple process for yourself now in attracting your soul mate. And watch what happens in your life.
