More Than Words is a magical journey into the unknown. Sean Wright-Mills and Meredith Trent are too busy in their hectic lives to think about romance and finding true love. Sean works all hours at the family business, while Meredith has opened up a bakery with her best friend. Their lives however, take an unexpected detour when a mysterious book appears, in which they have become the main characters. Sean and Meredith come together to try and discover who is behind this elaborate hoax. Five sellers of antiques are confronted and questioned about the book's origin. Is it up to them or will the book decide if there will be a happily ever after to their story? I was inspired in part by E. Gaskell's novel North & South and childhood fairy-tales when coming up with the idea for this story. I think we all need a little magic in our lives, especially when we least expect it.
