Kue Summers and Candy Michaels have grown up in very different worlds. Candy enjoys life in a Minneapolis suburb where wealth, private schools, frequent travel, and privilege dominate. Kue lives in Twin Pines, a quiet, northern Minnesota community where life evolves slowly but family and church assume great importance. Both Kue and Candy have recently graduated from high school; public for Kue, private for Candy. Before embarking on a path to a college degree, each accepts the challenge of group leadership in their respective churches.
