La rebelion de las elites y la traicion de la democracia / The Revolt of The Elites and The Betrayal of Democracy (Spanish Edition) C. Lasch

En esta estimulante obra; Christopher Lasch realiza una contundente crítica de las deficiencias detectadas en los valores de las élites profesionales y directivas de nuestro tiempo. Este eminente historiador; así; afirma que la democracia actual no sólo está amenazada por las masas; como ya apuntó Ortega y Gasset; sino también por las élites; de manera que la ~rebelión de las masas~ del filósofo español se convierte aquí en la rebelión de las élites~; entes móviles y con una visión cada vez más global que se niegan a aceptar límites o lazos tanto nacionales como locales: Lasch sostiene que; al aislarse en sus redes y enclaves; abandonan la clase media; dividen la nación y traicionan la idea de una democracia concebida por todos los ciudadanos.El autor; basándose en este punto de partida; utiliza el pasado para descubrir las raíces de nuestro dilema actual; rastrea el modo en que la meritocracia -el ascenso selectivo hacia la élite- ha ido sustituyendo gradualmente a los ideales humanistas del respeto y la tolerancia; y critica incisivamente; además de otras tendencias culturales; la moda de basar la autoestima en el éxito como (falso) remedio de los más profundos problemas sociales. La conclusión es que; por desgracia; todos nuestros males parecen proceder de la irracional e ilimitada fe de esas élites en los poderes de la ciencia y la economía global.Terminado inmediatamente antes de la muerte de Lasch; este libro constituye la culminación de su vigoroso y original pensamiento; pues; como sucede en toda su obra; la aparente sencillez y modestia de sus ideas no sólo pretenden el replanteamiento público de muchas cuestiones; sino sobre todo el examen de conciencia de todos aquellos lectores preocupados por el futuro de Occidente y de su democracia.
