Something Broken (A Lawson's Peak Mystery) (Volume 3) Roger Emile Stouff

A phone call from Amos Notterly's hometown sends the old detective and Sheriff Gordon Bredenbury to Deacon Holler and the family Amos has not seen in years...along with the woman he loved and lost thirty-six years ago. Her son has disappeared, and the local authorities seem uninterested in finding him. Amos and Gordon take on the case, but along the way Gordon becomes a suspect in a murder, and he and Amos are ensnared by an old vendetta dating back to the warehouse shooting that nearly crippled Amos in 1964. Back in Long Valley, a train derailment south of town unleashes chaos that Chief Deputy Gerard Rand, Deputy Parker Rain Bird and Carolina Proud Horse struggle to control. Forest Service Captain Tara Landrum arrives in Long Valley to apply for the vacant sheriff's office position Gordon offered her...and perhaps get closer to the sheriff himself.
