No matter how good your curriculum, how organized or prepared you are...these things are all irrelevant until you students "Teach-To's." Teach-To's are those behaviors and routines teachers must teach every child in order for his or her classroom to run smoothly. Over the past decade, In collaboration with master teachers from around America, the Center has put together more than 100 pages of classroom - and school-wide (communal) "teach to's" that highly effective teachers are using in diverse classroom settings across America, Canada, and abroad. These "teach-to" lesson plans have been developed and field tested by highly successful classroom teachers.
