Often times we as human beings cannot always see the “light at the end of the tunnel”. We often see our challenges as punishment or negative karma. In actuality, our obstacles are a part of our life journey and the stepping stones to our destination. Every experience is made to help us to remember how to tap into our inner being and remember our “true self”. In this book, the author helps readers to discover and remember the true power that we are all born with. Discovering truth and learning how to tap into an infinite Higher Power, is one of the greatest accomplishments a person can achieve. Every soul is destined to live a life of peace and happiness. Through the steps and knowledge of this book, you will discover how to remove the junk and welcome in the power of love. “Remembering the True Essence of Self Through the Human Experience”, imparts the wisdom that we live in a Universe of abundance. Once we have the tools to change our lives, we can all have the life that we desire. We are not brought to this earth to live unhappy or impoverished lives. The only obstacle that stands in our way is our thoughts. By sharing her own personal journey and her transformational spiritual awakening, Author, Candice G. Smith generously takes us by the hand and brings us out of the darkness and ushers her readers into the Light.
