BLACK METAL & ART CONTEMPORAIN Tout détruire en beauté (French Edition) Gwenn Coudert

Tout comme le black metal, l'art contemporain se nourrit de radicalité, et il est fréquent, comme dans le cas de l'actionnisme viennois, qu'il accueille en son sein des artistes performers portés sur le désastre. Incompréhensions, fascinations, caricatures, les artistes contemporains sont victimes des mêmes préjugés et remettent en question les mêmes tabous. Ce livre dresse des parallèles novateurs entre les black métalleux et les plasticiens contemporains. Il est longuement introduit par l'artiste et enseignant aux Beaux Arts, Jean-Baptiste Farkas (Glitch et IKHÉA©SERVICES), dont la démarche est similaire à celle des musiques extrêmes. L'auteure et photographe Gwenn Coudert illustre son propos de nombreux clichés. Elle a sillonné concerts et festivals avec une seule question : comment entendre la musique avec les yeux ?
