Does everybody have Naked Roommates, or is it just me? Julia Joy Conners

Jenny has a problem and it's all about sex.

It's been three months since she broke up with her boyfriend, and three months is a long time without anybody to take care of her needs (if you know what I mean). Many months without sex can drive a girl to desperate measures.

Jenny just got out of school and has moved to Boston to share an apartment with her very best friend Megan. Megan has a sweet, wonderful boyfriend Jimmy who visits every weekend, and when he visits, Jenny can hear every sexual moan and groan that goes on in Megan's bedroom. She lies in bed at night listening to the bed squeaking, trying (and failing) to help herself with her own fingers.

To make matters worse, Megan and her boyfriend don't worry much about modesty. Jenny and Megan have been friends since they were kids, so nakedness is no big deal. After all, they've done all the things most girls do at teenage sleepovers. But when Jimmy is visiting, things should be different, shouldn't they? Or maybe not? After all, what's wrong with being naked when you're around friends? Megan and Jimmy don't care. Why should Jenny?

The moans and groans and squeaking beds and naked bodies are making Jenny's problem unbearable. Megan has an idea of how to help but it's pretty outrageous. Will Jenny accept the offer? She badly needs the sex, but can she really do that? With him?

CAUTION: This is an erotic story with much nudity, exhibitionism, voyeurism, masturbation, and explicit sex. There are also big doses of love and affection and humor, all among very best friends. It's a full length novella, so there's a lot to read. I hope you enjoy it!

This story is also part of my collection "Tales of the Taboo."
