The Fallen (Volume 1) Roy Love

Gabriel Mason is not your typical twenty-three-year-old. Since the young age of nineteen he has been a member of the Choir, a ruthless organization of assassins. Since his induction into this mythical group, he has completed his missions with merciless devotion to his trade. When the daughter of a wealthy businessman is targeted by those seeking revenge; Gabriel is sent to see that the mission is done right. He locates his target, Cady Bishop and soon discovers that she is no ordinary mark. Although Gabriel hates to meet his targets face to face, there is something about the girl that intrigues him. On the eve of Cady's scheduled death, Gabriel realizes that he has fallen in love with the girl he was sent to kill. Will he choose Cady the love of his life, or the Choir, the only family that he has ever known?
