Cuba: La República de Generales y Doctores (Spanish Edition) Robert A. Solera

Con la presente obra el amigo lector está ante un libro-documento en el cual se hurga más allá de lo políticamente correcto, como algo necesario para situar en su perspectiva real la historia trastocada y edulcorada por la maquinaria propagandística del régimen castrista desde 1959. Las nuevas generaciones de la Isla se han de preguntar por qué se borró de las ciudades toda alusión al presidente Estrada Palma o por qué se desconoce cuáles fueron los recovecos de la destitución del general Máximo Gómez por la Asamblea del Cerro... Con este libro, Solera de Castro aporta su piedra en la reconstrucción fundamental de Cuba, al indagar en los prolegómenos y la fundación de la primera República; porque para pretender un futuro es indispensable conocer el pasado.
