My Miracle Journey Mohammed Bajeri

Mohammad Bajeri loves art but has had a problem with reading as early as first grade. His earliest memories of reading include seeing stars, planets, and asteroids shooting across a dark horizon when he tried to read in front of class. He has dyslexia. This is a heart-wrenching story of a boy growing up insecure and feeling isolated in his tender years, trying to understand what was wrong with him, what made him different from the rest of his class, and in the process having every bit of self-esteem crushed. Learn about the battles young Mohammad had to face in an inspiring journey that would take him across three continents, ending in America, where he would pursue his dream of becoming a pilot. Will he overcome his dyslexia and its entire mental and emotional toll on his young mind? Will a twelve-year-old kid with dyslexia ever learn to fly?
