Lana is a curvy twenty one year old college student who's never had much interest in boys, and no interest at all in her family. When she randomly hears from her mother with an invitation to go boating, she can't help but agree. She loves the water. She is excited, until a couple of her father's friends show up and bring back bad memories from her past. What's worse is she is forced to spend the day with them on a boat, alone. With no parents around and the realization that her dad's friends are the sexiest older men she has met, anything could happen. What Lana doesn't realize is that her choices on that boat may affect her entire future and force her to lie to everyone, including someone she loves.

Warning: Contains mature themes and language of a sexual nature. 18+ only!
