The Collective Unconscience of Odd Bodkins Dan O'Neill

Dan O'Neill was the most eccentric of the underground comix. His Odd Bodkins strip can possibly be found in two books: Hear the sound of my feet walking drown the sound of my voice talking, and the collective unconscious of Odd Bodkins. It began as a "conventional" newspaper strip syndicated by the Universal Press Syndicate, but the adventures of Fred Bird (the only comic strip character ever declared persona non grata by Britain) and his pointy-headed intellectual friend Hugh were very strange from the beginning. They took part in the infamous Mickey Mouse Vs. the Air Pirates Funnies which was the subject of a successful lawsuit by Disney corporation. United Press dropped the strip in favor of the tamer Doonesbury.
