My business is making friends... but he wanted more.

If you're rich and lonely, I'll drive your car, carry your shopping bags, and be your arm candy to make your friends jealous.

But Jason just wants to get you into a dirty poker game so he can take down your cash. It's a career choice that means he's attracting a lot of attention from the wrong kind of people, including the police and the gangs.

I need to stay very far away from Jason. The trouble is we can't seem to keep our hands off each other.

Vegas Friend is a 10,800 word male/male contemporary gay romance novella about two bad boy gamblers who need to make a choice about when it's time to get out of the game and take a chance on each other. This is a complete standalone story including a HEA and no cliffhangers. Bonus: Also includes the first chapter of The Runaway Model and The Runaway Millions.
