A Sweet, Clean Amish Romance Short Story

Samantha's lifelong dream just came true – she was offered the opportunity to teach at the Chesterfield County School. Yet only a week into teaching and Samantha finds that Joshua Woods has caught her eye, and apparently she has his, because they can't seem to spend enough time together. But this poses problems. While Samantha knows she would leave teaching to be a homemaker for Joshua and his children – a different dream come true – she's not sure she wants to leave her job as a school teacher.

Meanwhile, Joshua struggles with his newfound feelings for Samantha so soon after the death of his late wife Jessica. He worries about his children, who like Samantha but are still grieving their mother. Is Joshua moving too fast? Should he wait? And will Samantha ever leave the dream job she's so gifted at and loves, to stand by Joshua's side?
