Donfire!: Donald Trump's Scorched-Earth Campaign Against American Complacency Pat Clark

Donfire! is an information-packed and irreverent unauthorized biographical essay on Donald Trump. Readers will learn the secret "inside story" behind the political, business and sexual success of Trump, plus get an eye-popping peek behind the scenes of Trump's media operation, and a preview of how Trump's campaign promises would be implemented and by whom. The Trump campaign is set in the context of American political and social history, in a way that helps the reader better understand the Trump phenomenon and its potential significance. Throughout the book, you will learn things about Donald Trump that you never imagined possible, as the book covers the key motivating factors that conditioned Donald Trump's approach to running for President in 2016. Donfire! is the product of meticulous research and serious meditation about the political rise of Donald Trump and its potential consequences. The writing style is vigorous, with a strong undercurrent of broad humor running throughout a series of "you are there" anecdotes that illustrate the character of Donald Trump and his associates and rivals. For the price of a Trump hat or t-shirt, you'll have a ringside seat to the greatest show on earth: the bonfire that Trump has set to entertain the American people by creative destruction of the political system as we know it. In the climactic chapter of Donfire!, "Donny Does Dutchess," you'll experience first-hand the thrill of a raucous Donald Trump rally in upstate New York. Donfire! is this summer's hottest beach read, and will be the most talked-about book of 2016 in U.S. and foreign government and political circles. Buy your copy now!
