A thief and an old lady are equally matched – they both are clever and tricky.

What if by fate, these two characters meet, using their own trickiness and cleverness to trap each other into spilling their own deepest hidden secrets?

Street-smart Bill who is 10 and on the lam, breaks into a house which he thinks is vacant, looking for food and shelter. Very soon he realizes it's a trap set by the homeowner who is old, lonely, and mean, who looks more ghost than human.

What would happen to Bill? Would the old lady call the sheriff to bring him back to the horrible foster home he has run away from or would Bill be able to outwit the old lady and get away with his crime?

Thrilling, exciting and moving, the book is the emotional journey of two people who are supposed to be each other's rival. But unexpected twists happen one after another. What Bill's fate leads to, you will only find out if you read the book until the last page.
