Children with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) often find it challenging to interpret social situations and may not understand speech as quickly as most social interactions require. A Comic Strip Conversation is a conversation between two or more people using simple illustrations in a comic strip format. It is designed to show children how to behave in a socially acceptable manner and conform to social standards. Comic strip conversations can also be used to help children prepare for challenging situations, for instance, a new situation where they are not sure how they should behave.
