AT LAST THE HERO!

In the final book of the These Foolish Things Trilogy, Phil and the gang are back, and maybe this time he'll be a real hero.

Earth is under threat from an AI that has gone suddenly all Orwellian, and from a race of genocidal mushrooms who have a real problem with the number of legs we have.

Somehow Phil, with his onboard AI and his new super-ripped muscles has to save the world from this double threat, and see that Mille gets the justice she so richly deserves.

With a cameo appearance from Strange, and a deranged appearance from Mrs. Masters (Ex), the final book in this science fiction comedy series takes Phil further from his comfy chair than he has ever been.

If he should succeed, against all the odds, then perhaps, when he stands erect and heroic above his fallen enemies, there may even be a chance of an exotic love interest.

Follow Phil as he takes on light-sabre wielding robots and squishy aliens; as he attempts to bend an alien court to his will, despite not understanding a single sqawk they say.

Will Phil emerge as the hero he always wanted to be?

Will gorgeous women flock to him with love in their eyes and lust in their hearts?

Will he be found hiding in a dark corner with his eyes closed and his fingers in his ears, waiting for the world to go away and leave him alone?

With a bonus 'Origins' short story, and an excerpt from the Narrative Facilitator's Pixie epic.

Don't miss this last chance to laugh with Phil.
