Hamtaro Board Game Book Ritsuko Kawai

Ritsuko Kawai's popular magazine series, Hamtaro Tales, has spawned a mega-industry in Japanese — and now worldwide — pop culture. His hamster hero is the star of Tokyo's top-rated children's show and a 2001 blockbuster feature film. Kids can't get enough of the cute, cuddly Hamtaro, the wacky but well-intentioned golden hamster, and its owner, ten-year-old Laura. This colorful board game book, based on the adventures of Hamtaro, Laura, and the Ham-Ham Gang, folds open to create several different game boards. It includes six game pieces in the shapes of the Ham-Ham bunch.
