When Mrs. Leahy becomes ill, Noah is fast acting and is hailed as a hero for saving her life.

Noah takes everything in stride and has become a trusted friend to many. He's growing up, but his adventures continue.

His generosity and care for others is spilling out to the neighbors and friends in his life who gather together to support Mrs. Leahy and each other in this continuing series.

Noah is growing up and learning all about love and friendship along the way.

He even has a big surprise for his best friend Titus—one that will change his life.

Book 6 carries on the adventure of Noah, Titus and the entire neighborhood as they come together in a tight-knit community of love and support.

As Book 6 continues the story of Noah and Titus, their friendship soon will become even closer as Titus starts to see Joseph and the Wolf too.
