This story is only about 6,500 words! If you're interested in longer works, please check out the rest of my catalog!

Connie Chase works for The Billionaire Datebroker—a matchmaking company that caters to an elite set of men...who always request to be set up with the same type of trophy woman. Blond, rail-thin...Connie's boss Jane lectures her on what rich men want all day, and the requests that pour into the agency seem to mirror exactly what Jane thinks.

The whole thing has become such a routine that Connie pulls from the same file of blond skinny-minis all day. Until Alex Hunter calls...

His request is specific...and unusual for The Billionaire Datebroker. He wants a strawberry blond BBW, which Connie is.

She's not interested in dating clients, so she sets him up with another woman.

But what Connie doesn't know is that Alex Hunter has looked her up online...and Alex Hunter gets what he wants.

Short standalone story.

Mature situations, for adults only.
