Science, Spirituality and the Modernization of India (Anthem South Asian Studies)

'Science, Spirituality and the Modernisation of India' explores the lively transaction between science and spirituality in India over the last 150 years. The book addresses the tension between science and spirituality; how some key figures in India explored the relationship between the two in the very process of trying to reform their society; significant areas of research in which both are both deeply implicated; and their relationship with gender and social justice.
