"I'm so glad you're here, B," Serena said, resting her head on Blair's shoulder as the ship drifted through the stars like something in a dream. They had taken off a few hours ago, and Blair was finally starting to relax a little. Chuck sat on the other side of them, looking extremely peaceful for someone who had recently been held captive on a Somali pirate ship. Blair still couldn't believe in the luck that brought them all together like this. "I couldn't leave earth without you."
