The First Stewart Edward White's Collected Works: The Call of the North, The Westerners, and More! (11 Works): The Western Fictions Stewart Edward White

Stewart Edward White was an American writer, novelist, and spiritualist. He was a brother of noted mural painter Gilbert White.

Born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, he attended Grand Rapids High School, and earned degrees from University of Michigan.

From about 1900 until about 1922 he wrote fiction and non-fiction about adventure and travel, with an emphasis on natural history and outdoor living. Starting in 1922 he and his wife Elizabeth "Betty" Grant White wrote numerous books they say were received through channelling with spirits. They also wrote of their travels around the state of California. White died in Hillsborough, California.
